The Constitution is modified and amended by the replacement of paragraphs 18.4(c) and (d) with the following:

“(c) Responsible Entity may give notice

- (ii) In the event that notice is given as provided in paragraph 18.4(c)(i) and the Defaulting Grower fails or neglects to remedy the default complained of, the Responsible Entity may, for and on behalf of the Defaulting Grower, sell some or all of the relevant Almondlots by public auction to be conducted as far as practicable in accordance with the provisions set out in sections 254Q to 254R inclusive of the Corporations Act relating to the sale by a company of forfeited shares.
- (iii) The Responsible Entity has no liability to the Defaulting Grower in respect of such assignment or sale.

- (ii) The consideration for the assignment of relevant Almondlots to the Land Owner or any other person nominated by the Responsible Entity in accordance with this paragraph 18.4(d) will be the market value of the relevant Almondlot determined by an independent valuer at the Defaulting Grower's cost. The Responsible Entity and the Defaulting Grower must jointly request the President of Victorian Law Institute Limited (or, if such body has ceased to exist, then such other institute or body which carries out similar functions) to nominate a person to value the Almondlots for the purposes of this paragraph 18.4(d).

 - (A) publicly advertised;

- (B) notified to all Growers (placing such reserve price on the relevant Almondlot as the Responsible Entity thinks fit).
- (iv) If no bid is received at such auction equal to the reserve price on the relevant Almondlot, the Responsible Entity may sell or otherwise dispose of the relevant Almondlot, on behalf of the Defaulting Grower, as it thinks fit, including a sale to itself at a price not less than the reserve price. Other than a liability to pay the sale price in the event of a sale to itself in any of these events, the Responsible Entity has no liability.
