2.6 Crystallisation

- (c) a person proposes to take action or action is taken to obtain a writ, order, notice or other thing relating to distress, attachment or other execution over that asset;
- (d) a Security Interest (other than this Charge) over that asset becomes capable of being enforced or a person enforces or attempts, purports or proposes to enforce, a Security Interest over that asset; or
- (e) the Chargee gives a notice in writing to the Chargor to that effect in relation to that asset.

Nothing in any paragraph of clause 2.6 prevents the floating charge from becoming fixed as to any asset under another provision of the Charge (including another paragraph of clause 2.6), or by operation of law.

2.7 De-crystallisation

- (1) If the floating charge over an asset becomes fixed under clause 2.6, the Chargee may release that asset from the fixed charge at any time by notice to the Chargor.
- (2) If the Chargee gives a notice under clause 2.7(1), the asset specified in the notice will, with effect from the date specified in the notice, be subject to a floating charge under clause 2.1 and clause 2.5 and subject to the further operation of clause 2.6.

2.8 Priority Amount

- (2) The Chargee may at any time lodge a notice under section 268(2) of the Corporations Act specifying an increase in the maximum amount of the prospective liability referred to in clause 2.8(1) and from the date of lodgement the amount of the Priority Amount will be varied to the amount specified in the notice.
- (3) The prospective liabilities secured by this Deed include all liabilities which may become payable by way of principal, interest, fees, expenses, indemnity payments, losses or damages owing by the Chargor to the Chargee. 3.2 Partial release of Charge

- (1) The Chargee may release a part of the Secured Property from the Charge at any time.
- (2) A release of part of the Secured Property from the Charge does not adversely affect the Charge over any other Secured Property, or any Transaction Document.

3.3 Reinstatement of Charge

- (1) If:
 - (a) any payment, settlement, conveyance, transfer or other transaction made in satisfaction or in connection with the Secured Money is void or voidable under any law; or
 - (b) any claim is made that any payment, settlement, conveyance, transfer or other transaction made in satisfaction or in connection with the Secured Money is void or voidable under any law and the claim is upheld, conceded or compromised, the Chargee is immediately entitled to the same rights, powers and remedies against the Chargor and the Secured Property as it would have had if the relevant payment, settlement, conveyance, transfer or transaction had never taken place. If requested to do so by the Chargee, the Chargor must, at its own expense, sign all documents and do all things necessary to restore the Charge to the Chargee.

- (2) This clause 3.3 survives the discharge of the Charge.

- (1) This Deed is a continuing security and remains in full force and effect, despite any settlement of account or any other matter or thing, until a final discharge is given to the Chargor.
- (2) The obligations of the Chargor under this Deed extend to any increase in the Secured Money as a result of any amendment of, supplement to or replacement of any Transaction Document or any other act, matter or thing, whether or not the Chargor gave its consent to or had knowledge of the relevant act, matter or thing.
