Jane

I refer to your letter dated 14 December 2009.

On the basis of what is stated in that letter, ASIC is not able to comment upon whether in the circumstances it is appropriate for the Constitutions to be amended in the manner proposed and more particularly, what the responsible entity may reasonably consider to be the effect of doing so on members rights.

regards
Andrew

Dear All,

Please see the attached letter in relation to the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Timbercorp Table Grape and Citrus Projects.

If you have any issues with the proposed amendments, please let me know by 5pm on 18 December 2009 as the liquidators intend to proceed with the amendment on Monday.

Regards

Jane

Dear Andrew

Timbercorp Citrus and Table Grape Projects

At the hearing before Justice Judd on 24 November 2009, we mentioned to the Court the Liquidators' intention to amend the Constitutions for each of:

- 1 2004 Timbercorp Citrus Project;
- 2 2005 Timbercorp Citrus Project;
- 3 2004 Timbercorp Table Grape Project; and
- 4 2005 Timbercorp Table Grape Project,

to include a power to surrender the Growers' Sub-leases. As Mr Zwier indicated to the Court, given that the amendments are the same as those made in the case of the Timbercorp Forestry, Almond and Olive Projects, the Liquidators' view is that the amendments are not controversial. Accordingly, unless an objection is made by ASIC or the grower representative group, the Liquidators do not intend to seek a direction in relation to the making of the amendment. However, as has been the case with each other Timbercorp Project, the Liquidators would seek directions from the Court prior to exercising any such power.

Please let us know if you have any issues with us amending the Constitutions in this manner.

Yours faithfully

Jane Sheridan
