Information in relation to Grower Investors with loans and arrears

If I have a loan with Timbercorp Finance Pty Ltd (In Liquidation) (“Timbercorp Finance”), will I still receive my distribution payment?

Grower Investors with loans owing to Timbercorp Finance will have their distributions dealt with in one of the following two ways:

- The distribution will be placed on hold pending a legal determination in relation to the competing claims of Grower Investors and Timbercorp Finance to the distribution proceeds; or
- Grower Investors may execute a Timbercorp Finance Direction to Pay document directing that their proceeds be paid to Timbercorp Finance. Timbercorp Finance will apply the proceeds against Grower Investors’ loan balances and reduce the interest charged accordingly.

If I have invoice arrears, will I still receive my distribution payment?

Grower Investors with invoice arrears may have amounts deducted from their distribution to satisfy any outstanding amount before payment is made to the Grower Investor. Where Grower Investors also have a loan with Timbercorp Finance and have executed a Direction to Pay, amounts owing for invoice arrears may be deducted before the remaining proceeds are paid to Timbercorp Finance.
